

I commit to...
I will attend school board meetings (public school!) and support those running for public school offices. (Will encourage others of my friends & colleagues to do the same.)
I will get involved in creating block parties and FUN & inclusive community events.
Ask me about the illegality of "steering" and "redlining" in Real Estate
I would like to throw a DEI party in Moscow. East City Park - Build Community through Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion
I'm interested in the Moscow Mentor Program with the Moscow School District.
Be involved with either a women's political group or braverangels. We need to learn to have conversation with those who have different beliefs to combat ideologies that don't serve all.
Recruit more people to engage in civic/community action.
Forwarding civic engagement - Working as a liason between the generations - elders to young children/young adults and University students.
I joined LCHRTF! And want to organize an immigration teacher and an immigrant community defense network.
Be more involved in the public school - volunteer to read to students.
Attend school board meetings.
Coffee/lunch dates with people different than me.
Coaching a college workshop. Coaching a journal writing workshop.
Establish comprehensive calendar of events for the Palouse
*Circle dinner for people of different perspectives to come together. *Coffee with someone from a differing perspective.
Have coffee with a new person every week.
Feed students at the center.
Commit to joining a Braver Angels workshop.
*Try a Braver Angels workshop. * I'd be happy to do dinner with someone from a very opposite viewpoint & try to find a common ground (this was one of our ideas in the Expanding the Circle workshop).
local wellness movement with a thereapy pool
Explore messaging/communication that will serve the greater good.
Commit to creating a pro-democracy discussion and working group in the Viola community. Help Democrats & Unaffiliated people find each other, including former republicans.
I commit to talking to a Christ Church member.
Continuing our panel organization for U of I events organized by Dr. Kenton Bird.
Work with an organization whose MAIN purpose is to develop student/Moscow community relations.
Find a way to provide housing/safe space for women wanting to leave the church.
Participate in more organizations.
Perhaps get involved with Indivisible Moscow
Plan to: Invite local groups to league of womentvoters speaker series for next year's presentations.
I commit to continue to work for free speech and everyone's constitutional right to read what they choose and access information they need regardless of ages.

United In Community - "I commit to ____." activity

Volunteer with a UI mentoring program for UI students needing DEI support that UI eliminated.
Join Latah County Human Rights Task Force as a new member
Participate and volunteer with Indivisible Moscow.
Continue outreach to U of I education majors to get them involved in community & politics.
I commit to writing LTE which are informative and doesn't attack people.
I will commit to being more involved in this community and community wherever I end up.
I would like to meet one on one with (?) to welcome them to our beautiful town, but I'm not interested in debating theology.
Volunteer for with school mentor program.
Connect with many different groups of people.
Form common ground regular chats, gently expand into local issues from the opposite perspectives.
I'm participating in Indivisible Moscow.
Read more, educate myself in Braver Angel techniques to communicate with family who are contrary.
I will write to my congressmen and senators more consistently.
I will work to recruit candidates for local, state, and federal officers that support the constitution, believe in the worth and dignity of all people and the belief that everyone's story is worth knowing so history is important.